Specific - Employment Agreement Between Supplier and Its

1. For your information there is attached one copy of an Agreement of Employment between both LAC and RW and their respective personnel. Agreements between other suppliers and their personnel will be furnished for informational purposes as they are received by the undersigned.

2. One of the suppliers has directed that we not attempt to interpret the provisions of the agreement for their personnel and has stated that if we do so and our interpretation is inconsistent with the intent of the agreement, which is clearly understood by each employee, we would be held liable for our interpretation.
